

November Newsletter Content

Why Businesses Are Turning to A Uniform Rental Program

Did you know that 91% of shoppers select a store to shop in because of its appearance? Uniform programs have long been helping improve and maintain business image by successfully promoting a company brand and projecting a professional image. Studies have even shown that customers are more likely to buy from employees that are in uniform.

With your UniFirst program you can receive up to a 45% discount on workwear and facility services to keep you employees looking fresh and professional.

UniFirst will also provide:

- Logos Personalization
- Hygienic Laundering
- Repairs & Replacements
- Pick Up & Delivery
- FREE work shirt pressing

Looking for help with your company's safety and health needs?

The UniFirst First Aid + Safety program provides cost-effective solutions for on-site first aid products, personal protective equipment (PPE), and personalized delivery services. They also provide certified safety training programs to help keep your team safe and productive on the job, and your business OSHA/ANSI compliant.

For more information contact your Savings4Members Savings Consultant today at 844-346-3746 or info@savings4members.com